KEYNOTE TALK

Donna shares her relatable story of how she went from surviving to thriving. After realising she was sinking in business burnout, with her marriage in tatters, Donna was at the brink of closing the doors to her business multi-6 figure business, until she decided to own her journey, take control and reshape her business and lifestyle in a whole new direction!

During the presentation, Donna will share how to take hold of your career and business direction and create a values centred business and lifestyle. Donna will inspire your audience to step up and create real change, follow their passion and do things they may have never thought possible!

Beyond the Stage

Donna likes to serve you and your guests both on and off the stage. Before the event, Donna will work with you to understand the intentions and vision for the event and tailor her presentation to suit the theme and/or desired outcomes.

Donna will spend time with your guests after her session to connect and answer questions as well as providing additional applicable resources to your delegates to ensure that impact of the presentation lasts much longer than the day.

Donna's goal is to provide both you and your event guests with an experience that is memorable, inspiring and provides a massive return on investment.

Audio/Visual Requirements

In order to ensure that Donna can deliver the most impactful keynote or workshop presentation possible there are some key things that she'll need:

- 1. Wireless lapel microphone where possible. Donna likes to walk and engage with her audience so a wireless mic will provide the best result
- 2. Projector, laptop with her presentation & clicker (Donna can provide laptop & clicker if required)
- 3. If the session is a workshop then a flipchart, pens or a whiteboard may be required
- 4. Water on a speaker's table for all types of events
- 5. Please let Donna know if the room will be set up in lecture, classroom or cabaret style

I would absolutely book Donna again! If you're looking for an emcee or speaker for your next event, you're mad if you don't book her in.

I was looking for someone that could captivate the audience with her knowledge and present powerful information, Donna did this plus more. I got an amazing vibe from the moment I met Donna and she was professional from the start to the end of the event.
